Registration Overview

There are two types of events at Dunedin Fringe: Artist-produced and Festival-produced.

Artist-produced events make up the majority of the programme (82 in 2019). Dunedin Fringe, like most fringe festivals around the world, is open-access so anyone is welcome (and encouraged!) to register a show and take part.

As the name suggests, artist-produced events are organised entirely by the artist. So you book your venue, set your dates, times, and price and most importantly – find your audience! Artists take 100% of the box office income (less ticketing fees) and pay 100% of the bills.

Festival-produced events are organised by the festival office and are designed to mark significant points in the Festival and help promote artist shows and festival visibility. The biggest and most exciting event we produce is the annual Opening Night Showcase, a 2-hour extravaganza featuring 5 minute previews of artists shows from the Fringe. The Showcase happens on the eve of the festival (Wednesday 18 March). We're also celebrating our 20th birthday with a Street Party on Saturday 21st March. This is will be a family friendly day event, with both trailer stages and small performance spaces.

Registration Fees

All shows pay a registration fee to be part of the programme and in return get a listing in our printed guide, on our website and the support of the Fringe team who manage and promote the festival in its entirety, produce showcasing events, and provide overarching infrastructure such as ticketing.

All registration fees include a bond of $50.00 which is refunded once the artist has completed an online Artist Event Report following the festival. This report is critical to the festival as it provides important data such as attendance figures and artist feedback which helps shape future festivals.

The Artist Final Withdrawal Date is Friday 30 November. If you cancel your event after this date – your registration fee and bond will not be refunded.

If you register and pay the fee before 27 September there is an early bird special price. Be advised that payment of the registration fee also incurs ticketing fees and credit card charges from the ticketing provider.

Dunedin Fringe 2019 Registration Fees:

	Excl. Bond	Incl. Bond
Free Event	$100	$150
Koha/Donation Event* (early bird)	$150	$200
Ticketed Event (early bird)	$250	$300
Koha/Donation Event* (27 Sept - 30 Nov)	$175	$225
Ticketed Event (27 Sept - 30 Nov)	$275	$325

* Koha/donation registration fee is priced in recognition that some events of this nature can generate income comparable to ticketed events.

Please refer to page 9 of this guide for further information about the S.E.A.T. option for koha/donation events. By choosing this, Artists can give their audiences the opportunity to secure guaranteed entry in advance of the performance, while still having the opportunity to make further contributions directly to Artists at the event.

How to Register

Dunedin Fringe now utilises the Eventotron registration system - which will be familiar to practitioners who have registered an event with one of the many other festivals that also use this system (such as the NZ Fringe). Some of the operational advantages over our previous system include:

- You don't need to complete your registration in one sitting;
- If you are registering your event for another festival that also uses Eventotron, data entry will be considerably faster;
- You can find venues via Eventotron and some will even receive applications directly from the portal;
- Eventotron will automatically generate a preview of your event listing in our printed guide, and you can amend this easily (before 30 November);
- Registration fee payment is linked into the Eventotron system;
- Festival documents and manuals can be accessed via Eventotron.

<input type="text" value="Confirm Password"/>
SIGN IN	REGISTER
<small>Forgotten or missing password?</small>	<small>By registering, you are agreeing to our terms and conditions and privacy policy.</small>

Follow these steps:

1. Go to www.eventotron.com. The landing page should look like the above. Existing users sign in; new users will need to create an account (step 2)
2. Enter your email address and a password in the new users section. Eventotron will notify you if this was successful, and you should then be able to sign in using these details in the existing users section.
3. You'll be prompted to complete your profile.
4. Click 'Create event'.
5. You will be prompted to 'apply' to a festival. Select Dunedin Fringe Festival and then enter all fields to complete our registration. You can stop and start as often as you wish - and contact us if you hit a major roadblock.

After creating your account, you'll need to complete your profile.

Then click 'Create a New Event'.

You can navigate through the various sections using the menu on the left - registration does not need to be completed in sequential order.

Venues (& Eventotron)

Finding the right venue is one of the biggest challenges, especially for those events requiring a professional theatre space. Eventotron can help you identify an existing venue to meet your needs, or if you're the type of practitioner that likes to use found spaces, or something a little bit different, you can also create your own venue.

The venues listed in the venue finder section are by no means the only places you can present your event. The starting point of this database is venues used in 2019 but more will be added to as time goes on. There are three options:

1. Use the venue finder to identify suitable options. If you hit 'More info/Join' you will obtain further info but you'll need to contact them via traditional methods (email/phone) to organise the booking (this is because the venue does not currently have access to the Eventotron system). Once this is confirmed, hit 'join ____' on their listing to enter the details of your booking into Eventotron.
2. Some venues allow applications via Eventotron (because they have access). They are identified by the 'more info/apply' button, which will put you directly in contact with them. You can enter both confirmed or provisional details, with a drop menu to indicate this status.
3. Add your own venue. Use this option if you can't see the venue listed and have 100% confirmation of all details. NB double check the venue isn't listed under another name to ensure you don't duplicate venue listings.

Fee Payment

Once the progress bar hits 100% you will be able to pay the registration fee. Once this is complete: congratulations you have just successfully registered for the Dunedin Fringe Festival!

Reminder: You can amend details of your event until SATURDAY 30 NOVEMBER. After this date your listing will be locked.

Post Registration Eventotron

Various activities need to be subsequently completed via Eventotron including: uploading your media release; letting us know about your artist passes; uploading reviews; and your post-event survey.

Ticketing

All tickets must be sold via the festivals ticketing partner. Exceptions are only made for venues that are contracted to use another ticket provider. Your audience will be able to buy advance sale tickets via the Fringe website and at Fringe HQ (26 Princes St.). You (or your venue if it offers this facility) will be responsible for administrating door sales (front of house).

Audience Ticket Fees

There is a BOOKING FEE for your audience when they buy online advance ticket sales if the tickets are higher than $14.00.

Online Purchase Booking Fees:

Ticket Price	Booking Fee
$1-14.00	$0 per ticket
$14.01-24.00	$1.00 per ticket
$24.01-49.00	$2.50 per ticket
$49.01 +	$3.00 per ticket

There are also other booking fees detailed below:

- In-Person @ Fringe HQ $2.50 per ticket (additional to the above)
- Phone Purchase (via Eventfinda) $8.50 per transaction (plus courier fee)
- All purchases made with a credit card will incur additional credit card fees of 2.5%.

Artist Ticket Fees (aka Promoter Fees or insider charges)

Every ticket sold to your show (except door sales – see below) incurs a ticket fee which will be automatically deducted from your ticket income. The Promoter Fee is $1.50 per ticket regardless of the ticket price. The remaining amount will be paid to you at the completion of your season or the festival. If you are unsure of any aspect of ticketing – contact us.

Advance Sales

All ticketed events are required to have advance ticket sales. Advance ticket sales close two hours prior to your show start time. Approximately 30 minutes after advance ticket sales have closed – you will be emailed a copy of your advance ticket sales. This includes a list of the people who have bought tickets. You can choose to use this list at the door to you event (for example if someone forgets to bring a printed copy of their ticket – you may choose to check they are on the list and let them into your event).

Door Sales

All events must sell tickets on the door unless tickets have previously sold-out via advance sales. It is your responsibility to manage all aspects of your box office and door sales. This includes checking you have a copy of your advance sales and can work out how many seats you have left to see on the door.

Artist Passes

All registered events receive a limited number of Artist Passes for performers and key personnel. The Artist Pass gives the owner a discount off the full price of all ticketed events – DOOR SALES ONLY.

Events may allow Artist Pass holders free standby entry to any show once all paying members of the public have entered, and only if seats are available. Artists seeking this standby entry must stay well clear of the theatre entrance, be respectful of paying audience members and obey the instructions of box office staff at all times.

Festival Comps

Every registered event must set aside complimentary tickets to the Festival office to the amount of 10% of each of their first two shows and four tickets to every show thereafter (exceptions will be made for venues with extremely small capacities). The Festival will use these tickets for judges, media, staff and volunteers and festival supporters and sponsors.

Koha & S.E.A.T Tickets

The Te Reo Māori word ‘koha’ has many meanings and is used in different ways by different tribes in Aotearoa. A common meaning is the offering of a ‘gift’ or ‘donation’ and this use has become a popular one in the context of events and as a way of asking people to make a donation either before or after an event.

Many Dunedin Fringe events use a koha system and feedback from artists suggests it can generate better goodwill and income than a traditional fixed-price ticket. As a result, we introduced a separate registration fee for koha events (see page 5).

For audiences however, koha events can mean they have no guarantee of getting into an event as it is usually first-in, first-served. To help with this issue, artists can select the option of offering a $3 ‘Secured Entry Advance Ticket’ (S.E.A.T). The kaupapa (idea) behind this ticket option is that it gives an audience member the security of having a ticket (and as a result guaranteed entry) at a very low cost and they can then make their koha or donation at the venue.

Some events have reported that audience who have purchased a S.E.A.T don’t understand they should make an additional donation at the event. Although this is stated in our ticketing info you may want to consider your koha collection method to ensure this is understood. Be aware that some koha ticket holders may be Fringe judges, sponsors or supporters who have already made their contribution to your event in another way.

Concession Tickets

A concession ticket refers to any ticket buyer other than a full-price adult ticket. This often includes students, seniors, unwaged or low income, children, care companions.

Venues (continued)

Dunedin is rich in interesting and untraditional spaces such as vacant shops and community facilities. But the city has very few professional venues and hardly any that are set up especially for the Fringe. This has been compounded by the 2018 closure of the city's only professional theatre, The Fortune. If you are coming from outside of Dunedin it can be hard to find a space that comes with infrastructure such as box office and tech although there are various options. Feel free to contact the festival office for further advice - we're here to help.

Festival Club

The Fringe runs one venue called the Festival Club. The Club was established in 2016 as a venue for artist shows and late-night music events. It a venue for hire with 6pm and 8pm shows daily, and a 10pm show Thursday to Saturday. The club is in high demand and you can apply within Eventotron. Capacity is 120 seated, and it comes with simple tech, technician, bar, and Front of House supplied. The Festival Club is a pop-venue; a converted community gallery space located within the same building as the Fringe Office. There is a private dressing room and bathroom.

Black Box Pop-Up Space

The Fringe Office also hosts a pop-up performance space known as the Black Box. This is a low-tech, high profile space in a large window located on the main street near the centre of town. Although some performances in the Black Box are not registered Fringe events, it is also a good promotional opportunity for suitable registered events. Contact the Fringe Office for more info, or to apply.

Artist Funding

Dunedin Fringe has received funding from Creative New Zealand to distribute to New Zealand artists to support the development and presentation of new work and to assist with touring costs. If you meet the eligibility criteria, we encourage you to apply for a Fringe Grant.

For the 2020 Fringe we have two funding pools available.

1. General Arts Pool - available to all NZ practitioners working in any art forms.
2. Regional Theatre Pool - available to theatre events with a majority of core personnel based in Otago or Southland. This pool is offered to those most affected by the closure of the Fortune and therefore has a narrower application criteria.

The demand for Fringe Grants is always high. It is crucial that your application shows income from multiple sources – not just Fringe Grants. We strongly advise artists to apply for funding from several different sources and are happy to provide advice around this. Please see the 'Other Funding' section below.

To check the funding criteria and apply: download the Fringe Grant Application form on our website. Applications close FRIDAY 6 SEPTEMBER.

For more ideas on seeking and raising funds, check out the Funding Options doc on our website.

Hot Tips

Choose Your Timing: Many events are on weekend nights starting at 8pm. Consider an early or late session to give audiences more options. Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights have less competition. Please ensure all shows are finished by 7pm on the final night of the Festival (Sunday March 29) – as we want to see y'all at the Fringe Awards!

Pricing: Set your prices based on your budget and how many people you think will realistically attend your event. Be conservative – many events budget on as little as 30-40% of venue capacity. Fringe prices usually range between $10 and $20 and having koha-entry (donation) is an increasingly popular option. Check the ticket section of this pack so you're fully informed about tickets fees and options.

Promote your event in advance: Artists who rely on their listing in the Festival programme or a Facebook event don't usually do as well as the artists who put the time into a full promotional campaign. It is your responsibility to promote your event and take the time to develop a strong publicity plan. Do more than just print a poster: consider a mix of printed material, radio, online advertisement, publicity stunts, and social media. Turn up several days prior to your event to network, hand out fliers and conduct media interviews!

Performance Rights: If you are using someone else's music, script or artwork, you need to acknowledge and pay for the rights to use it. A couple of helpful websites include:

For music see: <http://www.apra.co.nz/>

For scripts see: www.playmarket.org.nz
